

Contact:
Catherine Filippini
425.576.1710
cath@bombar.com

Media Alert

Kirkland Celebrates Founding of City; 100-Year Birthday Party tonight

Date: Wednesday, October 12, 2005

Details: Kirkland's citywide 100-year birthday bash; last day of seasonal Kirkland Wednesday Market. Complimentary cupcakes available at the Kirkland Downtown Association Booth. Birthday party festivities begin at 5:00pm and are as scheduled:

5:00-9:00 p.m.

100 Years of Kirkland History Exhibit

Kirkland Senior Center
352 Kirkland Avenue

7:30-8:15 p.m.

Outdoor Main Stage Performances

Peter Kirk Park
Corner of Central and 3rd Street

6:00-9:00 p.m.

Imagine the Future Music Jam
Kirkland Teen Union Building
348 Kirkland Avenue

7:45 p.m.

Birthday Fireworks (weather dependent)

Lee Johnson Field
Viewing at Peter Kirk Park
Corner of Central and 3rd Street

6:30-7:15 p.m.

Birthday Party Special Performance/Commemorations
Kirkland Performance Center
350 Kirkland Avenue

Cost: All celebrations are open to the public and free of charge.

Information: Call 425.587.3003 or visit www.kirkland100.com.

Media: Visuals include commemoration ceremony at Kirkland Performance Center, actors as Peter Kirk – the city's founder, Marilyn Monroe look-a-likes to sing happy birthday, fireworks, birthday cakes, and performances on the main stage.

Kirkland city leaders will be on hand at the Kirkland Performance Center for commemoration.

###